

Good Tuesday to everyone.

Waking up today with God and yourself.

This morning I am thinking and talking with God about being closer and knowing more of Him and Him within myself. These times, although devastating, have given me and hopefully many the opportunity to see the days through a different vision.

I am looking at the work "knowing". In the Bible:

KNOW, KNOWING, KNOWN, KNOWS

Is to be intimately familiar with; to discern, recognize, regard, acknowledge, pay heed, approve, and learn

It is mentioned 86 times throughout the Bible

KNOWLEDGE

The fact or condition of being aware of something, of having information, or of being learned; information, wisdom

It is mentioned 24 times throughout the Bible

I woke up Easter Sunday grabbed my coffee and headed to the sunroom with all the print-outs of messages from everyone. Reading all of them felt a wonderful way to be with my church that day and prepare for the service at 10:45. The day, Easter Day, could not be more perfect.

Today I have discovered 110 ways to "Know" more about Jesus, God, myself, and all those around me.

Isn't it though provoking how One Word can send you on a quest?

My Father God, hold us close to you, lift us up to you, let us see your Blessings & Grace and feel your feet walking through our hearts. This I pray in Your Son's precious name Jesus Christ

Peace, Love and a beautiful day to you
